This September -- Celebrate the Sixties!

All Month: Visit The Museum --
Play 60s Trivia - Share Memories

September is a great time to visit the Museum and learn what the Beach was like forty years ago. Win a prize playing the 60s trivia quiz on page 8. Share your own stories of Flagler Beach life in the 1960s -- you could be featured in a future newsletter or a book being written about Flagler County History. You can also volunteer to work on Gala decorations during Sixties Week: September 18-22. Whatever time or talent or Museum interest you have -- come by this month and share!

Sept. 23rd: Museum Fundraiser: Gala-A-Go-Go!

It's a Mod-Mod-Mod-Mod World! And time to get your tickets for this year's "Gala-A-Go-Go!" featuring the Rat Pack Lounge. We'll celebrate the British Invasion from the Beatles to Bond and Tom Jones to Twiggy. Get in the mood with your favorite Sinatra: Ol' Blue Eyes or Nancy with her Walkin' Boots. We'll do The Twist, The Swim, and The Pony. (For costume ideas and more information you can check out the Museum's new website: www.flaglerbeachmuseum.com. Click on Galas! Or see pages 3, 6 and 8 for more Gala info and 1960's history.)

Support your Museum at a fantastic party catered by the fabulous Gianna's Creole Steakhouse. Dance contests, and costume prizes are only the beginning. Purchase tickets now in time to be entered in the 9/16 drawing for a Limo-A-Go-Go ride to the event. (See page 3.) Call 439-0134 or pick up tickets at Preferred Management Services at 109 South 6th Street.

Museum Shares Display With E.O.C.

The Flagler Beach Historical Museum (FBHM) has branched out by sharing a display with the County in the lobby of their new Emergency Operations Center.

The two-way radio below was made by Motorola, Inc.

and was known as a handie-talkie. It is capable of operating from AC power and dry cell batteries. FBHM 1st Vice-President Rob Creal said, "The radio was supplied with a box of spare parts to be used for field repair. A chart was provided showing which parts to replace for a specific problem. There were also instructions on how to prevent and/or reduce damage to the radio from EMP (electromagnetic pulse) caused by the above ground detonation of an atomic bomb."

Then Chief of the Flagler Beach Volunteer Firemen, Creal received the radio from Bob Barzelogna, then County Civil Defense Director who had received permission to dispose of outdated fallout shelter supplies.

In one box of parts, he found a note that they were for the Flagler Beach shelter. Creal said, "The only public fallout shelter that I am aware of in Flagler Beach was at the old Lehigh Cement Plant. Yellow and black shelter signs were posted on some of the silos." The radio may have been stored here or just designated to be sent here in the event of a nuclear crisis.

Editor's Note: Perhaps the most famous of U.S. fallout shelters was President John F. Kennedy's which was created during the Cuban Missile Crisis in 1962. (Celebrate the Sixties!)

WE TREASURE OUR VOLUNTEERS

Thank you Tom McKinney!

As a born and raised Floridian and full time flatlander I've always gravitated to the nearest beach. My wife, Jan and I moved to this area (Palm Coast) three years ago from Orlando and Flagler Beach was one of the drawing points. We had used St. Augustine as a mind cleansing mecca for many years and often drove the A1A route as much as possible there and back. We especially enjoyed the stretch from Ormond to St. Augustine and often stopped in Flagler Beach to enjoy the 'orange' sand. When the time came to leave MouseTown we naturally were drawn to this 'Old Florida' section where there are no buildings between A1A and the beach. Kinda' like Destin was before money moved in and pushed everyone aside.

Having been twice retired (35 years federal service, and 7 years with Siemens-Westinghouse) I wasn't eager to jump back in the work force so contented myself with maintaining the household while my wife worked more than full time. Soon afterwards I found myself with more time on my hands than I could personally justify in the goof-off column so responded to my wife's gentle nudge that I talk to Catherine Wilson and Shirley Putnam about volunteering at the Flagler Beach Historical Museum. Jan had attended a luncheon at Flagler Beach City Hall and heard that there was a need for docents at the museum. I drove over the next week and talked to Shirley, filled out the form, and the rest is history.

Fortunately for me, I chose Wednesday as my volunteer day and the 1st week I was reading Catherine's history book and noticed volunteer David Eichenberg making entries in the computer, posting a worksheet and counting money. Nosey me moved next to him and asked "Whatcha doin'?" After he went over the procedures I offered my expertise in that area. My last 34 years of employment (both federal and Westinghouse) had been in Accounting/Finance and I had an extensive background in that area.

Unbeknownst to me at the time was the fact that David spends summers at his other home in PA, and there was an almost immediate need for someone to replace him for the next six months. Although my computer skills themselves are somewhat lacking I've always been very adept at data entry. That skill, a few weeks of training, and my dogged determination to make sure the accounting ledger entries balance each week have paid off. I've satisfied my desire to keep active in the business community and at the same time feel I'm giving something back.

Jan, a nationally recognized clothing designer, and I both enjoy this 'laid-back' area and wonder why we didn't move here in 1996 when I first retired. Guess it took having our grandchildren move from Orlando to Virginia in 2003 to force us to make an easy decision. Even though we live in Palm Coast our hearts seem to have moved on their own to Flagler Beach as we spend more and more of our spare time here.

On a more personal note I spent 8+ years in the USAF as an interpreter in slavic languages, 28 years with the USPS retiring as District Accounting Coordinator and 7 years in Siemens-Westinghouse managing timekeeping and expenses for their overseas contractors. I attended Syracuse University 1959-1961 majoring in Czechoslovakian and completed my BSBA in both Management and Marketing at the University of Central Florida (Orlando).

My spare time currently is spent at a local gym attending various exercise classes (step, pilates, power and kick boxing), and crewing on a 40 foot sailboat out of Port Canaveral. My previous self-punishments included 18 years in competitive tennis across central Florida and 16 years as a long distance runner in the Orlando area. At my current age of 65 I've been told that I need to slow down -- but I just can't seem to grasp that concept. ~ Tom McKinney

Note from the Director: We at the Museum are ecstatic that Tom hasn't grasped that advice to slow down. We've benefitted enormously from Tom taking on the membership accounting. We know that the dues notices and "thank yous" will go out each month and the books will balance. Now we are busy cooking up new ways to utilize Tom's many other talents! ~Teri Pruden, Director

~~~~~ JOIN THE FUN - YOU CAN HELP! ~~~~~

Do you have talent in Graphic Design or Model Building? FBHM Volunteer Ed Moore is reworking Museum display areas and is looking for help from someone with talents in this area. If you would like to pursue some volunteer work, call Ed Moore at 446-5452 for more information.

Begin volunteering this fall as a Museum docent. Greet our visitors and share history with our guests. From as few as 3 hours a month to a few days a week, whatever time you have to offer is greatly appreciated. For more information, contact Teri Pruden at (386) 439-6262.

Please Share Your Stories and Photos!

If you have a tale or two about Flagler County in days past, we want to put you in the movies... or at least in print! If you or your family members have photos from the early days of Flagler County, we would like to scan them. Help us record local history with photos, your stories in the newsletter, or by allowing us to videotape you or an elder family member. E-mail teri@visitmemorylane.com or contact Teri at 439-6262 for more information.

Bronze Members: The Flagler Beach Pharmacy

Edna & I came to live in Flagler County primarily because of our children. We stopped for a visit once in 1994 to see a friend who lived in Palm Coast & the kids loved the open, green spaces. At the time we lived in the Wellington area of Palm Beach County.

Several months later we came back and bought a lot in Palm Coast. Within less than a year we selected a builder and proceeded to make a commitment to Flagler County. It's funny, because we had no idea of where we would work as Edna worked in a hospital pharmacy and at the time I worked for Rite-Aid.

To make a long story short, we moved here on faith and there was a Rite-Aid on State Road 100 where I worked for a short time before it was sold to Eckerds and then closed. As we approached Thanksgiving 1996, I was out of a job overnight.

But after listening to many of the inconvenienced customers, we were inspired to open our own pharmacy -- the Flagler Beach Pharmacy. The rest is history as we will celebrate our 10 year anniversary here in February, 2007.

The Flagler Beach Pharmacy was well-represented at the 1940s themed gala. L. to R.: Employee Joy McGrew with husband Steve, Edna & Jodi Bevel in their award-winning 1940s costumes, and employees John LaForte and Mattie Hayward. See page 3 for more information about this year's Gala-A-Go-Go!

I learned of the Museum through a variety of sources. The son of one of our employees, John LaForte was instrumental in the interior design as a recent architectural graduate from the University of Florida. But the primary force of our decision to support the Museum was Board Member Charlie Helm as he will not accept any answer but yes!!

But seriously, our Pharmacy became a Bronze Member of the Museum to help preserve the rich history of Flagler Beach. As we have grown with our community, we felt it was important to give something back. Rather than just be any other business, it is our goal to become friends with the community. For that same reason, we believe all local business should also belong to the Museum.

~Sincerely, Edna & Jodie Bevel, The Flagler Beach Pharmacy

JULY GAS TAX DISTRIBUTED
Ren Morris, director of the State Beverage Department, reports that net cigarette tax collections for the month of July, 1966 amounted to $5,348,223.32. Of this amount $2,192,063.53 will go to the State General Revenue Fund and the remaining $3,156,159.79 will be distributed to qualified municipalities. Flagler County municipalities will receive the following amounts:
Bunnell	$ 2,366.79
Flagler Beach	1,399.78
Beverly Beach	117.92
Marineland	168.34
Painters Hill	15.56

Headlines from 1961 announced that the Cattlemen set aside November 4th for the 10th Annual "Cracker Day." Five years later in 1966, Interstate 95 was making the weekly headlines. The article at right detailed the concerns of Bunnell and U.S. 1 businesses about losing traffic to their locales. In other news, a Tent Revival was announced, and the county's Chamber of Commerce drive enlisted over 50 memberships at $25 each. Advertisements also vividly show how much times have changed. Ads often seen in The Flagler Tribune included those for colored televisions, convenient time-saving dishwashers, and air conditioning. With the grocery prices listed below, today you could invite the whole neighborhood. Your grill would be sizzling with steaks at 59 cents a pound and 4 pounds of ground beef for under $2.00. Dress those burgers with a jar of mayo for 37 cents and a jar of mustard for less than a dime! Wash it all down with 9 cans of lemonade for 99 cents!

Call Meeting Concerning I-95 Opening

A public meeting will be held Thursday evening, September 8, in the Bunnell Civic Center to discuss the business effect of the opening Interstate 95. The meeting is being called for 7:30 that evening by Tony Kahlert of Bunnell and Robert Henderson of Flagler Beach in an effort to find out what business firms think can be done to keep some of the traffic on U.S. 1 and other Highways through Bunnell. That the opening of Interstate 95 will have some effect on all businesses deriving revenue from travel on highways is agreed by most people. But just what can be done to retain some of the travel, is what the meeting is being called for. All business is urged to be represented at the meeting.

L. to R.: FCHS Board Members: Catherine Wilson, Rob Creal, Al Hadeed, Shirley Putnam

The Flagler County Historical Society

The Fuquay Home, today known as the Topaz, was the location of the Flagler County Historical Society's summer meeting. Catherine Wilson, Rob Creal, and Shirley Putnam shared interesting tidbits while guests enjoyed a special dinner prepared by the chefs at "Blue."

Dana Fellows Fuquay, purchased his Flagler Beach land in 1915. He built the Flagler Beach Hotel in 1924/1925 where his family lived while this house was under construction in 1926/1927. The estimated cost was $50,000 and it was the largest home in the area. It faced the ocean with the drive circling through a porte-co-chere. It had a shuffle board and tennis court on the north side, and a swimming pool to the west. The Fuquay's entertained a lot and the basement was large enough to park 10 cars. There was room for a 30 foot boiler plus servant's quarters.

Mr. Fuquay also built the Flagler Beach School in 1925. A home built for his mother in 1927 still stands at S.15th ST. & A1A. Today, it is the little cottage with the murals painted around the base. In the early 1950's he built the Massie Motor Court and a coffee shop, (today Flagler Beach Motel and Manny's Pizza). He also drew the plans for the Flagler Woman's Club at no charge.

After living there for nine years, the home was sold in 1936. During WW11, the U.S. Coast Guard was billeted in the Moody Hotel with their horses at the old Johnson dairy, but due to a lack of hot water at the hotel, they moved to the Fuquay house. 150 men and their horses were housed at the site until the station at what is now Gamble Rogers was set up.

Mr. & Mrs. E. H. Threadgill purchased the property in the early 50s and operated the house as an inn. They developed the entire block. The Topaz is owned today by the Mark Lee Family who were gracious hosts of the Society's quarterly meeting.

Fall Meeting at MalaCompra Plantation Ruins... Save the Date!

Want to hear from an architectural conservator who is a national expert in coquina restoration? Want to learn more about the unique history and archaeology at the MalaCompra Plantation Ruins? On Wednesday, Oct. 18th, The Flagler County Historical Society will host a picnic at Bings Landing Park so you can see the ruins up close and personal with the experts. Already on the National Register of Historic Places, the plantation ruins were home to Jose Hernandez, Florida's first voice in the US Congress and Congress' first Hispanic delegate.

The plantation was burned in 1837 by the Seminoles in retaliation of federal troops sent to drive the Indians out of Florida. Bings Landing Park, present site of the ruins, was Flagler County's first environmental land purchase. Now being prepared for permanent display is an interpretation center and this will be a sneak peak into the techniques used to protect the ruins for the public. If that is not enough to whet your appetite, add in a barbecue dinner overlooking the river catered by Woody's at a special rate of $10 per person. Seats will be limited. Reserve before October 11th, by calling Catherine Wilson at 439-2175.

Come See Your Museum - Bring a Friend!

The 1960s brought us two of the decade's most popular cartoons ever: The Flintstones and The Jetsons. Now view displays from the Stone Age to the Space Age here at your Museum. Prehistoric bones are on display next to the City's flag which was taken into orbit on the Space Shuttle Endeavour. View photos of Flagler Beach from the 1920s through today. Sign up a new member and you both receive a thank you from the Museum Gift Shop.
